MIS Public Lectures: Resilience and Conviviality

We will access the field of Migration Studies by distinguishing two different and, in a sense, complementary perspectives. The first sees migration as linked with crisis and vulnerability, the second sees it as linked with diversity and cultural difference. The public lectures will focus on recent debates revolving around two concepts that epitomize these parallel approaches: resilience and conviviality.

SPEAKER

Prof. Michael Ungar,

Canada Research Chair in Child, Family and Community Resilience
Director, Resilience Research Centre
Dalhousie University, Canada

Michael Ungar, Ph.D., is a Family Therapist and Professor of Social Work at Dalhousie University where he holds the Canada Research Chair in Child, Family and Community Resilience. Since 2002, Dr. Ungar has directed the Resilience Research Centre, designing multisite longitudinal research and evaluation projects in more than a dozen low, middle, and high-income countries, with much of that work focused on the resilience of marginalized children and families, and adult populations experiencing mental health challenges. Building on his work as both a researcher and clinician, Dr. Ungar has published over 200 peer-reviewed articles and book chapters on the subject of resilience and is the author of 17 books for mental health professionals, researchers and lay audiences. These include an open access edited volume titled Multisystemic Resilience: Adaptation and Transformation in Contexts of Change, and his 2019 release, Change Your World: The Science of Resilience and the True Path to Success, a book for adults experiencing stress at work and at home. His blog, Nurturing Resilience, can be read on Psychology Today's website.
