Session 1: Identity

Open MIS-Understandings

Debate Series to promote interdisciplinary exchange on central concepts of migration research

The Open MIS-Understandings is a multilingual series

The next 'Open MIS-Understanding' session will be dedicated to the notion of identity. Although of crucial importance for cultural and social studies, the concept of identity and its diverse and shifting understandings in various scholarly fields are rarely systematically discussed. A conceptual reflection seems particularly important with regard to migration related research and public debate.

SPEAKERS AND DISCUSSANTS

Department of Humanities

Dr. Isabelle Albert,
