ESFR Summer School at the University of Luxembourg in cooperation with the Key Research Area “Migration and Inclusive Societies” and the Centre de Documentation sur les Migrations Humaines (CDMH)

Families on the Move II

Please send us a personal motivation letter (max. 300 words>) to esfrsummerschool24@esfr.pt with the following information:

- Affiliation
- Area of research
- What stage of your Ph.D. are you in
- What do you hope to get out of this experience
- What do you hope to offer to your peers

Notifications of acceptance will be sent until June 30th. Practical information will follow too.

The summer school will be open for doctoral students, interested master students and early postdocs are also welcome. It will take place at the University of Luxembourg (Campus Belval), Luxembourg.

The focus of the summer school programme will be on multi-disciplinary theoretical and methodological approaches relating to families on the move and families in transition, within the contexts of:

- Lifecourse perspectives on families and migration
- Transnational families and (un)belonging across the life course / across generations
- Intergenerational family relations
- Intergenerational solidarity and care
- Intergenerational transmission of culture
- Family reorganisation and reconfiguration
- Fluidity and diversity within family life
- Parental/gender role changes within the family
- New family forms - modernisation and re-traditionalisation
- Families and digitalization

Doctoral students will have the opportunity to present and discuss their research. The summer school will also provide a forum for doctoral students to engage and collaborate with peers and other academics at an international level.
